The trail in our sugar bush is not completely wheelchair accessible, therefore individuals requiring a wheelchair and their support person are eligible to pay only the meal price (but can still go on the wagon ride using our wheelchair lift) during our "open to the public" days. This policy does not necessarily apply to community group visits to the farm that are tailored to the needs of individuals within the group.

Dog Free Zone

For the comfort and safety of all our farm visitors, we respectfully request that you leave your dog at home. Service dogs will be permitted if they have the proper paperwork and vest identifying them as such.
